

Lanzafame's Lessons

Disbelief in magic can force a poor soul into believing in government and business.

~ Tim Robbins, Actor

Lesson #1

I would rather be governed by the first three hundred names in the Boston telephone book than by the Faculty of Harvard University.

~ William F. Buckley Jr.

Lesson #2

*We were happily married for eight months.
Unfortunately, we were married for four and a half years.*

~ Nick Faldo, Pro Golfer

Lesson #3

I am opposed to millionaires, but it would be dangerous to offer me the position.

~Mark Twain

Lesson #4

So they [the Government] go on in strange paradox, decided only to be undecided, resolved to be irresolute, adamant for drift, solid for fluidity, all-powerful to be impotent.

~ Sir Winston Churchill

Lesson #5

I'm disinclined to acquiesce to your request... Means "no."

~Captain Barbosa

Lesson #6

I am not young enough to know everything.
~ Oscar Wilde

Lesson #7

*I'm not leaving my wingman...
I am NOT leaving my wingman.*

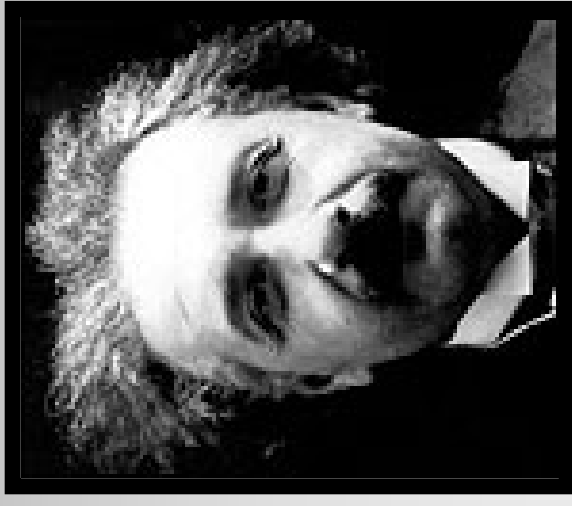

~Pete "Maverick" Mitchell

Lesson #8

You cannot simultaneously prevent and prepare for war.

~Albert Einstein

Lesson #9

Lay on, Mac duff, and damned be him that cries, “Hold, enough!”

~Macbeth

Lesson #10

You have to be willing to lose a deal to get a deal.

~Jim Starbird
