

ULI 07 Unlocking Europe for Growth Conference
Westin Hotel
3 Rue de Castiglione
Paris 75001
France

Young Leaders Special Programme

Tuesday 6 February 2007

14.00-18.30h

Young Leaders Event

The first ULI Young Leader conference for members and guests under 35

Programme:

14.00-18.30

Young Leaders Event

Special programme for ULI Young Leader members and guests under the age of 35.

14.00-14.15

Welcome & Introduction

Marilyn Taylor, Chairman, ULI & Partner, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill LLP (SOM)

Moderator: Greg Clark, Chair, OECD Forum of Cities & Regions and Adviser on City & Regional Development to UK Government

14.15-15.10

The Great Balloon debate

Six investors fly high in a hot air balloon but with the balloon leaking air just one can investor survive the journey. In this interactive debate, each investor is given a chance to sell the merits of his or her country as you the audience decide who falls and who floats

15.10-15.20

Info Burst: Green Building Design

Catch up on the latest green building innovations in this bite sized session.

15.20-15.40

In the Editor's Chair

The business press is one of the most accessible sources of information for the property professional but still remains a mystery to many. Mark Cooper, editor of EuroProperty, explains how his team gathers news and set the agenda for the European property industry.

15.40-15.55

Break

15.55-16.10

Hot and Cold spots in Europe Discover the hottest real estate locations and what is driving their newfound popularity as well as those cities that are being left out in the cold by the industry

16.10-16.55
Group Grilling

Take your chance to question four leaders in the real estate field will give a brief resume before taking questions from the floor allowing an insight into what makes them tick, how they got where they are, the lessons they have learnt in their careers and what useful tips they would pass on to help make the young leaders of today, the future stars of tomorrow.

16.55-17.05
Info Burst: Niche Investments
Discover the diversity of property investment products, from automotive and roadside, to healthcare and infrastructure, and which are showing the best returns in this punchy ten minute session

17.05-17.20
Break

17.20-17.40
Tall Buildings

What do tall buildings represent – city identity, density solutions or developers ego? Are they signs of prosperity or are they built to attract prosperity? David Lunts, Director Policy & Partnerships, Greater London Authority gives his views on the issues and explains the special challenges of tall buildings in London.

17.40-17.50
Info Burst: Shariah Investing
A digestible and useful bite-sized introduction to the world of Shariah investing.

17.50 – 18.30
Keynote Speaker – Pen Hadow, Polar Explorer

Pen Hadow, one of the world's most accomplished Polar explorers relates his experiences in the desolate, yet captivating wilderness environments that have provided him with the motivation and insights to help others enhance their own performances in everyday life.

18.30-19.30
Young Leaders Reception